Join the Brick Project for the Plaza at the Dan Magill Tennis Complex!

Under the direction of head coach Jeff Wallace, the Georgia women's tennis program ranks among the nation's elite, winning NCAA national championships in 1994 and 2000 and USTA/ITA National Team Indoor titles in 1994, 1995, and 2002. Since Wallace's arrival in 1986, Georgia has made NCAA Championship appearances each year and all but two of his teams have been ranked in the nation's top 10 at season's end. Wallace is the nation's winningest active coach and is one of only two coaches in history to be named Wilson/ITA National Coach of the Year three times.

By purchasing your brick, you will leave your mark on one of the most visible, historic and picturesque athletic facilities on the UGA campus. A personalized brick is a great idea for holidays, graduations, or any special occasion.

Order now to ensure your legacy and be a part of the rich history of the entire Georgia Athletics program. For more information on the brick program and other naming opportunities within the clubhouse, please contact the Athletic Association Development Office (706) 542-9220.
